The District Commissioner introduced Ms. Calder from UCP. Derellyn gave a presentation on the annual UCP McValley Cup Tournament. She urged everyone to ask their teams to attend and then handed out applications.

REPORTS

TOP SOCCER: Top Soccer is going great. They had 53 sign-ups. League will start on September 30 at Granite Park . Gary needs referees and “buddies” for the players. They are expecting about 120 kids to sign up. We are still the biggest league on the west coast. There is an ad in the paper with telephone numbers for people to call for information or sign ups.

RECREATION: No report

REFEREE: Mick submitted a written report. He reported that there were 16 entry level clinics with 257 new referees being certified. He thanked the leagues that hosted the clinics. He is going to check on the referees and those who are not doing their job will not be paid.

ODP: Jonathon reported that they have held one play day and have three more to go. Next month the girls will play on the 8th and the boys will play on the 15th.

STATE CUP: Reminder that State Cup applications must be in the CYSA office in Pleasanton by 6:00 P.M. on November 1st. Under 19's are due in April. This applies to all cup applications, Association Cup and Founder's Cup.

COACHING: The last clinics will be held this weekend. Karl Dewazien is doing the one in Metro. The second half of the E/D clinic will be held for 8 coaches so they may complete the course.

D7PP: Games are going on.

SPL: We have three teams playing in the State Playing League.

NEW BUSINESS: The District Registrar's computer crashed and because of the timing it became crucial to purchase a new one.

M/S/C TO RATIFY THE PURCHASE OF A NEW REGISTRAR'S COMPUTER AT A COST OF $1022.92.

Aye 9 Nay 0

The office also needs a computer. The one now being used is old and slow.

M/S/C TO AUTHORIZE PURCHASE OF A NEW COMPUTER FOR THE OFFICE WITH FUNDS TO BE TAKEN FROM THE OFFICE FUND.

Aye 9 Nay 0

The drawing was held for the free "F" clinic. Lemoore was the lucky recipient.

Next month a drawing will be held for a free referee clinic only for leagues who were in attendance tonight.

Reminder that election for District Commissioner is held in October.

GOOD OF THE GAME: Clay Ice commented that this is the most solid group of ODP coaches that he has seen.

Valley Youth League registration numbers are up.

Bill Dearson may be our new ODP person.

There being no further business, meeting was adjourned at 8:25 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Gladys Olsen, Sect.
